

Riccardo "Rick" Girolami

September 20, 1949 - February 4, 2026

Riccardo "Rick" Girolami,

76, of Indianapolis, passed away February 4, 2026. He was born September 20, 1949 in Rotterdam, Netherlands to the late Romeo and Ida (DeGiusti) Girolami. Rick was a graduate of Scecina Memorial High School and received his associate's degree in accounting from Indiana Business College. He married Martha Caballero and was employed in the accounting division of The Saturday Evening Post for over 35 years.

Rick was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. He loved spending time walking in the Indiana State Parks on Wednesday with his friend John Wyeth, watching sports with Andrew, visiting with Martin McGrory; playing pool, taking vacations to Fort Myers, gardening, and eating out at different restaurants. Rick especially enjoyed ice cream and gelato. He also enjoyed listening to Opera music, hosting dinners for many missionaries; but most importantly spending time with his family.

Visitation will be Monday, February 9, 2026 from 10:00 a.m. until the time of service at 12 noon at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 East Washington Street.

Rick is survived by his loving wife, Martha Girolami; daughter, Angela Bradley (Will); granddaughters, Emerson and Lennon; sister, Fernanda Girolami (Steve Grohovsky); niece, Stephanie Grohovsky and her family; and nephew, Alex Grohovsky and his family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Paralyzed Veterans of America.
