

Richard "Dick" Ecklebarger

July 29, 1942 - September 17, 2017

Richard "Dick" Ecklebarger,

Beloved husband, father and grandfather. He grew up in Goshen, IN, graduated from Goshen High School, completed his undergraduate degree at Indiana University and received his MBA from Butler University. After working 34 years in International Finance at Eli Lilly & Company; he decided he needed to retire "to something rather than from something". That led him to start his own travel agency, and within two years he became agent of the year twice in a row out of his national consortium. Traveling with his family was one of his greatest passions. Richard was a wonderful, generous, and special man who will be missed.

“ Mr. Ecklebarger was my good friend's grandpa who we always referred to as "Grandpa Richard." I remember always going to the Ramsey's lake house and seeing him there. I also remember both he and myself being in connecting hospitals and one point and Josh wanted to roll his bed over to my room. I really learned to appreciate and care for "grandpa" Richard. I believe he has accomplished many things in his life such as being on every continent. I also think that he is up in Heaven riding on to cruise some where because he always seemed to want to go on one. I will miss you "grandpa" Richard.

Sincerely,
Sam Robinson

“ Richard was such a fun companion & travel guide. He took care of everything. We just relaxed and enjoyed all the adventures. What happy memories we have of Richard & Lynn as we traveled around the world. We know he is in heaven & suffering no more.
