“ I got to know Dick and Rena when my late wife and I joined the Forester's. We were accepted as friends immediately. Dick and I and others bowled, golfed, played cards and took trips together. We always had great fun and companionship. Dick always strived to be a winner and when he beat you, regardless of what it was, he let you know, but in a jovial way. I have great memories of those days and cherish them greatly. Dick was always a catalyst in our groups. My condolences to his loved ones and God Bless.
