“ Yes, Rich loved to tell "punny" jokes, but when he proclaimed the scripture readings at Mass it was with a clear and beautiful voice of calm assurance. You knew he really believed what he was saying, and he helped me to believe it too!

“ I may not remember any of the jokes Rich loved to tell, but I will not soon forget his joy and smile in the telling! I think he did a good job sharing the joy in his heart. He is missed.

“ I bowled with Rich for the past several years and you could always count on him for three things - having a good attitude, telling jokes/trying to make others smile, and sharing some snacks with the team and others at the bowling alley.
