Life is made up of memories. Grand vacations and bucket list events are certainly wonderful but how is that simple life experiences can be the things that are sometimes just as meaningful. Who remembers spending special holidays at Ellenberger Park in Irvington? I do. One of the reasons I enjoyed these gatherings was because I knew my Uncle Dick would be there and he would bring his ball glove. A simple game of catch with him was a great joy that brought me lasting memories. I don't know what he got out of it but it meant everything to me.....and still does! Thank you Uncle Dick.
