July 23, 1945 - February 20, 2013

Richard Dickie Doo Eugene Settle, 67, of Indianapolis, passed away February 20, 2013. He was born on July 23, 1945, in Indianapolis, Indiana. Dickie was an avid dart player and pool shark. He is affectionately remembered in his many leagues for his pretournament saying, "I'm gonna knock 'em dead" and he almost always did! He enjoyed boxing and was very proud of his match in the 1963 Golden Glove Championship. He could fix anything with his hands and shared many hours with his father rebuilding cars. He was quick to make friends with his good sense of humor, and had a way of making you laugh even on your worst day. He was free spirited and carefree choosing to live life on his own terms. One of his greatest pleasures was riding his motorcycle. He will be remembered by family and friends for his quick wit, big smile, generous spirit, and charming blue eyes. His daughters will always remember his loving words of encouragement, "atta boy, girl". Rest in peace dad, we love you. Dickie is survived by his two daughters, Brandi Settle Jones and Jean Settle Deguerre; stepchildren, Kim (Hall) Linton and James Hall; loving grandchildren, Paige, Sarah, Mya, Nathan, Lucas and Gabriela; his three sisters, Francine (Settle) Knuth, Nancy (Settle) Zander and Jeanne (Settle) Mann. Preceded in death by his parents, Eugene Melvin and Patricia Ann (Elder) Settle; brother, Terry Dean Settle; and sisters, Vicki Lynn (Settle) Fischer and Lou Ann (Settle) Pierson. Friends and family will gather for a celebration of Dickie's life at 1:00 p.m. Visitation will be from 11:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. on Sunday, March 10, 2013, at Shirley Brothers Irving Hill
