

Richard Charles Whallon

September 30, 1925 - August 4, 2008

Richard C. Whallon, 82, of Indianapolis, passed away August 4, 2008. He was born September 30, 1925 to the late Harry R. and Louise Jenny Whallon. Dick was a graduate of Howe High School and Indiana University, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He was a veteran of the United States Army serving in WWII and the Korean War. Dick's career was in sales & marketing for Peerless Pump for over 15 years until moving to Colorado Springs, CO., where he worked for Boettcher and Company as a stockbroker for several years. Upon his return to Indianapolis he was employed by Jenn-Air Corp. and Masterfit for over 17 years. In retirement, he and his wife Susie lived in Green Valley, AZ., where Dick was involved with the Valley Players Productions and was a member of the Desert Hills Golf Club. Memorial visitation will be Saturday, August 9, 2008 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel, 3333 E. Thompson Rd., with a Memorial service at 1:00 p.m. Richard is survived by his children, Arthur J. (Sharon) Whallon, Richard C. Whallon, Jr., Catherine L. (Gary) Carmichael, Nancy A. (Zeff) Polanco, Timothy D. Whallon, Deborah S. (George) Sparks; 12 grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife, Suzette Micheli Whallon and brother, Howard D. Whallon. Memorial contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 9135 N. Meridian St., Ste. B-4, Indianapolis, 46260. His family celebrates his release from the long good-bye of Alzheimer's, while acknowledging that the world has lost a light with his passing.
