“ I will never forget all our times spent together growing up. Bowling, playing cards, holidays, going to your parents house every Friday night for them to play cards. You were there when my dad was sick, and I could never thank you enough. The sun was definitely a little less brighter these past few days. We have lost such a special person, as I said yesterday, someone who would give you the shirt off her back if she thought you needed it worse than she. You were a selfless person, with a big heart. You're at peace now dear cousin. You've earned your wings, Rest high on that mountain. Loved forever, never forgotten.

“ She's the oldest of four siblings.(Robbin, Norman, Faith and Billy) Our 2nd Mom. Sure we had our fights, but in the end we were sisters and family.

“Robbin was a second mother to me when I was a young girl. I cherished memories of the time spent around her Saturday morning breakfast table with her family. And the fact that she made perfect silver dollar pancakes effortlessly. She allowed me to play endless trivia games on their home computer. Many of my formative years were spent listening to records and learning about good music. I will always remember her fondly. Rest in Peace.
