

Robert "Bob" J. Johnston

October 4, 1960 - January 5, 2020

Robert J. "Bob" Johnston,

Robert "Bob" Johnston was born October 4th, 1960. Bob was the oldest of four children from William Wray Johnston and Elizabeth Johnston. Bob was a warm, loving, kind, gentle man who kept a positive attitude when battling with mental and physical diseases throughout his adult life. He inspired people to use compassion when helping others with mental illnesses.

The Fall was his favorite season. He would annually host a pumpkin carving contest for his loved ones and he prepared his house with hand painted Halloween decorations every year. The talented artist even won the Irvington Halloween Festival's "Home Decoration" award.

In Bob's world things were always perfect due to spending quality time with the people closest to him. This caused Bob to live his life with love and joy. The Lord restored Bob to wholeness on January 5th, 2020.

Visitation will be Saturday, January 11, 2020 from 11:00 a.m. until the time of service at 1:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel, 9606 East Washington Street. Bob is survived by his father, William Johnston II; brother, Mark Johnston (Shelley); sisters, Mary Rudicel (Chris) and Jennifer Lepsky; and nieces and nephews, Christopher, Sam, Alex, Daniel, Grace, Isaac and Aletheia. Bob's mother, Elizabeth Richardson Johnston, preceded him in death.
