“ Bobby was a good and decent man. We met him last summer over several days while visiting with Mary. He truly loved her. A funny story: when we met him, Bobby told our son Noah, age 11 to punch him in his stomach as hard as he could so that he could demonstrate his toughness. Noah's punch sounded like something hitting a piece of plywood and Bobby teased Noah that he didn't feel it! When we heard of Bobby's sickness before his passing, Noah was scared that he hit him last summer too hard!

Bobby, you will be missed...you were an awesome human being.

“ It's been a while cuz since we've shared some time together but my memories with you will stay close to my heart forever. Rest in Heaven now knowing that we will all miss you dearly. There will be another day when the memories will continue, until then Bobby keep that smile on. Love cousin Bryan and family.

“ God let me come into Bobby’s live for a reason. We seen each other 2 times before we actually meet. We met on June16th 2017 and we have spent almost everyday together. We have had wonderful life together. My kids have been so blessed to have had him in their life’s also and Bobby so loved them both. My daughter called him Bobo and Bobby depending on what was needed lol. Bobby had a sweetie heart I had met in a long long time. He treated me like his queen and I treated him like my king. It has been hard to see my babe be so sick For months. Thru this I know God choose me to be the lady in his life to show him that he was worth being loved on and taken care of in the good and bad until God was ready to take him home. His mother and I was there holding both his hands and I was kisses him goodbye and told him to go to the light that God needed his hand to take him to heaven with him. This was a blessing but very hard. The peace that I seen on Bobby face after he passed assured me that God had him and there was no more pain.

I will always love him and he will always be in my heart forever.
Rest In Peace my sweet angel. I will see you again in heaven and I know you will find me. Love Mary your babe
I will miss the touches and kisses and winks to each other no matter where we was. People could see how happy we was together.

“ I remember when we were kids and you all came out to our house on Lee Lane and we were checking out Scott's horse and you got kicked. You scared the daylight out of all of us. I remember that you and Mary Catherine were the "Donnie & Marie" of us cousins. I love you Bobby and you were a big part of all us grandkids growing up. I can't believe my last memory is of you coming with Cindy to Shelley's to see me and my kids. I was so shocked to see that beautiful head of hair replaced by a "Mr. Clean" look. You still were you through and through. Say "hi" to my Dad. I know you'll see him. RIP . I love you. Paula Sue Jeffers
