“ My name is Bob Runo. I worked at Sears for 23 years. I knew Bud but never worked with him. I am a good friend of Dave Cremeans. Dave invited me to come to the HIPS guys lunch each month about 10 years ago. Thats where I got to know Bud. I really looked forward to those lunches. You get a bunch of Sears guys together and the stories are never ending.

My wife Jane and I are so saddened to hear of your loss and a loss that so many outside of your family feel. Bud was one of a kind.

“ Bud was more than a friend. He was a fishing buddy, a hunting partner, and just a invisible mentor. I didn't realize what he was doing to me while I wasn't looking. He taught me how to be a good person, not that I wasn't already, but that I'm just a little better for knowing him .

Bud was truly a gentle man. He always greeted you with a smile and a good word. I never heard him say a bad thing about anyone. I saw him last in Alaska 3 years ago where he was doing what he did best: enjoying life. He was a friend and I will miss and remember him. I am a better person for having known him. Good-bye, Bud.

“ Bud,
May you rest in peace with a fly rod in hand at the right side of Jesus in heaven. Thanks much for being my strongest mentor over 17 years ago when I became a NWTF state board member. Prayers of comfort for your wife, children and grandchildren.
