

Robert Wetsel Graves

May 11, 1934 - October 25, 2010

76, of Greenfield, passed away October 25, 2010. He was born May 11, 1934 in Bicknell, IN, to John F. and Geneva (Waggoner) Graves. Robert served his country in the U.S. Army from 1951-1960 receiving many decorations, including the Purple Heart. He married Patricia (Higgins) Heyse, and was employed as a stores clerk for the Indiana Reformatory. He retired in 1999, and then worked security at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. He was a member of Hancock Baptist Church. Robert is survived by his loving wife, Patricia M. Graves; children, Lucinda T. Graves, Robert W. Graves, II, Marlene J. Sampson (Robert), Nathan W. Graves, (Lorraine), Andrea F. Duncan (Keith); step-children, Vincent R. Heyse, Deborah L. Heyse, and Amanda L. Burger; nine grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. A brother, Jack Graves, preceded him in death. Memorial contributions may be made to Hancock Baptist Church, 944 East Davis Road, Greenfield, IN, 46140. Arrangements entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.