

Robert C. "Bob" Israelson

May 18, 1935 - December 3, 2014

Robert C. "Bob" Israelson, 79, of Indianapolis, passed away December 3, 2014. He was born May 18, 1935 in Chicago, IL, to the late Clyde and Kathrine Nerenhausen Israelson. Bob married Janet Wilson in 1956, while serving his country in the U.S. Air Force. He owned/operated Automotive Remarketing Services, Indianapolis. Bob was a member of Spirit of Joy Lutheran Church, and former member of the Lawrence Jaycees. He loved traveling in his motor home throughout the U.S.A., fishing, model trains and making stained glass art.

Visitation will be Thursday, December 11, 2014 from 12 noon until the time of service at 2:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd., Fishers, Indiana.

Bob is survived by his loving wife of 58 years, Janet Israelson; daughter, Cheryl Taylor (Todd); and grandson, Andrew Taylor.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to IU Health Neuro-oncology Program and/or Spirit of Joy Church

“ Words can't express how sad we are at Bob's passing. We have shared so many good times during our winters in Florida and visiting with you at your home and when you have passed through Davenport on your way to some of you Bounder rallies. You have been great friends and we love you both. You and your family have our deepest sympathy.

“ I never met "Buddy" as we called him in our family. I was either not born or just a baby when he left the Chicago area. He was my only cousin. Rest in peace, Buddy. My condolences to Jan.
