“ I am so sorry to hear of Bob's passing. I have known Bob and Nona and the boys for many years. Bob was a great role model and excellent Father and Husband. He loved Jesus and his family. I last saw Bob & Nona at Jay & Patty Hines wedding. It was really nice for Meghan to meet people who had been such a large part of my early Christian walk. You will be missed Bob but never forgotten. Nona, you and the boys are in our prayers.

Due to the unusual circumstances in our country right now Bob's funeral was restricted to family only.... here is a small portion we wanted to share for those who wanted to come but couldn't “Bob was a great man. He was a mentor and a man of strong faith. He had a gentle approach but his words were always meaningful. He made a big impact on my life. I will never forget watching the IU games with Bob & Nona, especially, IU vs. PU. Bob will be missed, but, we will see him again one day. Peace, comfort, love to the family.

“ Bob was an amazing man who loved the Lord and his family. He was always an example for us of what it meant to be a Christian and he demonstrated his faith in how he dealt with people in daily life. His smile and gentle demeanor always made you feel at ease and he was always willing to listen and encourage. Our thoughts and prayers to Nona and the whole family!

“ My heart goes out to Nona and children. It is with a very heavy heart to hear of Bobs passing, but I look forward to meeting him again in the presence of our heavenly father someday.

Bob has been one of my dearest friends since our boyhood days, for that I loved him, as Bob said to me during our last visit. Because our mothers were very good childhood friends themselves, I think it was inevitable that we be very good friends too, especially because of our mutual love for sports of all sorts, our times together at church camps, and later on, even double dating with Bobs first date with a girl named Nona. Nona, what a blessing you have been to Bob and the life you have lived together.

Bobs stand for Christ has been evident his entire life, and is a model for us all to live by!

Love and humility.

Our love and sympathy goes out to Nona and family.

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. Bob will always be remembered by me as one of our family. He was a true friend and an example for us to live by. He loved the Lord and that showed in his daily life. I am sure he is enjoying a game of basketball once again.

You will be in our thoughts and prayers. Jay and Patty Hines
