“ It's just not the same on our street without our neighbor, Bob. We may not have been neighbors for long, but in the short time (a little over a year) Bob became quite special to the three of us. We will miss seeing him sit in his opened garage on nice evenings. David will miss his talks when he'd go over and join him and Robin will miss watering his flowers when he would be out of town visiting his sister in Illinois. He was a wonderful man and our lives have been enriched by the privilege of calling him our friend.

“ Bob was a wonderful neighbor and friend. We had many good talks together and helped each other with some tasks. Had the privilege of helping him blow the snow off his driveway, helping change the light bulb in the kitchen. Bob gave us many things which we will continue to cherish. We are thankful for the times we went to eat together. Bob gave our son Tim many of his models from his airplane collection. Bob was special to us and we will miss him. Our thoughts are with you this week and in days and months to come. May our Heavenly Father comfort you and strengthen you Gerry, Kelly and your children is our prayer.
