“ Uncle Roger was always one of my favorite role models growing up. He was funny, caring, and passionate to his family. He was always there for you and made those around him better. He also raised two pretty cool daughters. I will always be thankful for what he meant and did for me.

“ Most vivid memory of Roger, classmate, is an accident he had while running, 800 Meters, in a Taylor Field track meet. Think the accident took place on the second lap when Roger became entangled with the other runners, crunching him up against the infield fence, deeply gashing his upper arm. He was removed from the field and taken to medical services. I would suspect that this significant injury carried a scar that his family must have seen many times. I always respected Roger. He was a good person.
