

Roger B. White

May 25, 1949 - December 15, 2017

Roger B. White, 68, of Indianapolis, passed away December 15, 2017. He was born May 25, 1949 in Indianapolis to the late Robert and Elizabeth (McCord) White. Roger was a graduate of Carmel High School. He graduated from Herron School of Art and Design and earned his Master's Degree from Temple University-Tyler School of Art. Roger was a self-employed artist specializing in sculpture. Among his many celebrated works, Roger was a primary artist on the international team who created The Tree of Life and other sculptures at Walt Disney World's Animal Kingdom theme park. Roger was a member of Tecumseh Lodge. He lived his life to the fullest and loved and enjoyed his family most of all.

A Celebration of Life gathering will be held to honor Roger on Saturday, December 23, 2017 from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. at The Slippery Noodle, 372 S. Meridian St. (former location of the original White Studios).

Roger is survived by his wife of 35 years, Joyce; daughter, Kathryn White; sisters-in-law, Julie Folke (Tom) and Linda White; nephews, Jason, Robert and Chebon White; and nieces, Andrea White and Allison Folke. Roger was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Craig White. Final care and arrangements are entrusted to Shirley Brothers Thompson Road Chapel.
