“ Ever since I was 12 I've remembered your number and how you were always happy to hear from a former student turned friend and brother in Christ. A lifetime has come and gone and I'm going to miss our occasional conversation. Rest well and thank you for all the encouragement and love.

“ Mr. Burt and I met at Longfellow Middle School where I began my teaching career and he was my mentor. That was the beginning of our 28 year friendship. We had many adventures together. I supplied the transportation in a rather temperamental vehicle named “Norma”. During one excursion, Ron needed to stop at the drive through bank window. As we were in line, Norma decided to overheat and stopped running. Ron and I pushed her to the window, completed his business and then we pushed her down the incline and then jumped in the car as she started and rolled out on Meridian Street. During special holidays, we would go shopping for that special gift for Cathy. We would walk through the crowded store, Ron holding on to my shoulder, and me describing the handbags, or sweaters, etc. There was only one stipulation and that was not going into ladies’ lingerie. There were many more escapades that spoke of Ron’s tenacity to never let blindness interfere in his life. Ron was non-judgmental individual, seeing the best in a person. He was a loving husband, father, and grandfather. But most of all, he was my friend. Denny Ward

“ Memory from Teresa Sedra (Faulkner): I was a teacher along with Bro. Burt at CCS. One day as I was walking down the hall back to my classroom, he reprimanded me for being in the hall during class. Finally I told him I was not in his class, but was a teacher down the hall. He had confused my foot steps with one of his students.

“ I was privileged to be a student of Bro. Burt's at CCS. I always remember his easy way, his smile and positive outlook. Being blind, his hearing was very keen. One day while settling in his class we could hear someone walking down the hall. Before we could see who it was Bro. Burt said, "Praise the Lord Sis. Coogan. Reaching the classroom door Sis. Coogan said, "Praise the Lord Bro. Burt". We were all amazed. Rest in Jesus, until we meet again.
