

Rosemary Stevenson

January 30, 1918 - April 11, 2018

Rosemary Stevenson, 100 passed away peacefully Wednesday April 11, 2018. She was born on January 30, 1918 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Charles and Emma Moore. She was a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, great-aunt and friend. She was a fiery red head who loved her family fiercely, loved a competitive game of cards or Bunco. She worked as a court report for over forty years, she then went to work for her son as a bookkeeper for Karstadt Reed Cleaners for twenty more years. She was preceded in death by her husband, mother, sister, a grandchild and one great-nephew. She is survived by her beloved son, Steve (Carolyn) Stevenson, three grandchildren, six great-grandchildren, a sister, one nephew, two nieces, two great-nephews and five great-nieces. A private memorial service will be held Monday April 16, 2018 at Shirley Brothers on Washington Street, with burial to follow immediately afterwards at Washington Park East.

Cemetery Details

Washington Park East

10612 E. Washington St.
Indianapolis, IN 46229

Tribute Wall

“ Aunt Rosemary will always be remembered for her generosity of spirit to me. She always included me in the family from the start. I could always count on a birthday card, a Christmas gift and an encouraging conversation. She is missed.

Shirley K McDonald - April 15, 2018 at 06:58 PM

“ Beautiful Dreams was purchased for the family of Rosemary Stevenson.

April 13, 2018 at 02:58 PM