“ Aunt Ruth has been a beloved part of my life since I was born! My earliest memories are of visiting her and her father my Grandpa Milton Kisner in Menomonie, WI and being the flower girl at her wedding to Lewis Jackson when I was small. Then there are the memories of the births of their sons (and my close pals) Tom and Dan and their move to Oaklondon, IN and then Indianapolis. I could go on and on, but suffice it say I'm sad she is no longer a physical presence in my life, but proud and grateful that she was my Aunt Ruth.
