“ I met Ruth Wieland when I lived at Charleston East Townhouses. I was a precinct committeeperson and we voted at Gethsemane Lutheran Church. I used to pick up the key to the fellowship hall from her just before each election day, and then return it to her after we closed the polls. She was such a sweet and kind person, and I enjoyed talking with her. My condolences to her family and everyone at Gethsemane Lutheran - she will be missed by many people.
