

Ryan Anders

April 17, 2014

Ryan P. Anders

Cemetery Details

Oaklawn Memorial Gardens

9700 Allisonville Rd.
Indianapolis, IN

Tribute Wall

J.

“ MISS YOU SO VERY MUCH❤️EVERY SINGLE DAY
I LOVE YOU and THANK YOU FOR BEING A PART OF MY LIFE
💙

J.R. - April 18, 2016 at 08:03 AM

FR

“ Friend lit a candle in memory of Ryan Anders

friend - March 08, 2016 at 12:54 PM

#W

“ It's almost been one year. I have just now brought myself to process this whole mess. You were a great friend and one hell of a partner. I think about you a lot. You're number is still in my phone. Every time I kick a door in now, I think of the night we kicked the wrong door in there off Mickley Av. I know you still ride with me from time to time. I can sense it. I miss you buddy. I wish things would have played out differently. Ill never forget the REAL Ryan. Later, Egghead!

#Windsor2010 - February 09, 2015 at 10:09 AM

MO

“ Ryan, you brought so much joy to our lives. That sweet smile of yours sure melted my heart. I will miss our dinners together. I felt bad that you had to spend most meals alone. I looked forward to going to movies with you. Holidays will never be the same. One thing is for sure, I am proud of the man you were. You had the courage to chase your dreams and to do your best. You were loved and respected by so many. I am hopeful that the truth will come out and that no other officer will be treated like you were ever again. Just so you know, you really were never alone. I was always right beside you. Life will never be the same.

Mom - May 13, 2014 at 02:22 PM

PR

“ Ryan took our son, David Pollard, under his wing and mentored him on becoming a police officer. We have the utmost respect for Ryan and our son considers him as his brother. We so appreciate Ryan for taking the time and personally guiding him throughout his life the past 6 years or so. David shared many stories with us when returning from the ride-alongs with Ryan. He made a tremendous impact on our sons life and we are so very great full! David's post on his FB was that he knows that Ryan is still guiding him and watching over him. We believe this to be true. Our hearts share in this loss and we are praying for the family. God bless to the parents, your son will always be honored!

Patricia Ryan - April 26, 2014 at 05:52 PM

JN

“ There are no words to express how sorry we are for the loss of Ryan. Our hearts are with his family and friends during this difficult time. May the love and support of those around you help through the days and weeks ahead.

Jason & Karen Neeley - April 24, 2014 at 04:54 PM

AB

“ "Hey it's me, your daddy call, me back." When I read the message below I had to laugh out loud because I can still hear him saying that. Over the past few days, I know that so many of Ryan's friends have come together to share stories of the man that they once knew. It's helped to tell these stories because its reminded us of who he truly was- the kind, warm and funny kid that people wanted to be around. He was an amazing officer, who in his time on the Sheriff's Dept. and IMPD served his community well. He did a lot of wonderful things for the people around and was selfless in his service. It's important to remember all of the things that Ryan sacrificed for this community and for his department. He was a man worthy of being honored and remembered. Rest well my friend. You've done your time in hell.

A brother in blue - April 23, 2014 at 05:57 PM

SR

“ The events of last week changed families forever. I worked with Marvin Anders and Kenny Anders for 30 years on Marion Co. Sheriff Dept., both were honorable and loyal family men. Ryan followed his father on to MCSD, becoming a good road patrol officer before going to IMPD. My hope is for better times in future and wish every family involved the best in future. I hope Ryan finds peace now.

steve rendleman mcsd ret - April 23, 2014 at 04:58 PM

BA

“ You are in my thoughts and prayers

Bert Ambuehl - April 23, 2014 at 03:48 PM

KR

“ My heart pours out to the family for Ryan was a beautiful soul. May God hold you all in his arms and comfort you the best way he knows how. Believe that Ryan is at peace within. I will always have wonderful memories of Ryan, his personality, his humor, his wit and his kind soul. May God Bless you all.

Kellie Roberts-Cronley - April 23, 2014 at 10:31 AM

YB

“ Tragic. The best way to describe what happened for all involved. There are so many questions on why and how something like this could have happened. I have spent the last few days mad, confused, sad, and happy and the next days will be trying for everyone. We met about 16 years ago bowling and for whatever reason became friends almost instantly. How could you not be friends with someone with a goofball smile and that ridiculous laugh. You introduced me to my lifelong dream of being an officer and I never looked back. I watched you get promoted and reminded you of where you came from a couple times and even made sure you were aware I had more time on than you and always would. I am sure I still have a message on my phone that goes something like, "Hey, it's me, your daddy. Call me back". That is the person I want to remember and that is the person I will miss a great deal no matter what anyone else says. I still want to punch you like always, but you will always be Lunchbox.....

Your buddy - April 23, 2014 at 03:51 AM

FR

“ This is a sad very tragic i pray that God put his hand around the family.

friend - April 23, 2014 at 01:39 AM

S(

“ On behalf of the Société de Police - IPD Adam & Edward, our condolences to the family and friends of Ryan P. Anders. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, may looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

S. I. Drake, Lt/IPD (Ret) - April 22, 2014 at 08:43 PM

AN

“ Anders family - heart felt sympathy for your loss. I hope you find comfort in the happy memories you have of Ryan.

anon - April 22, 2014 at 05:54 PM

AN

“ Anders family, I am sorry for your loss and grieve for both families. He is a victim too. According to all reports everyone knew he was ill yet they failed in helping him escape his demons. He was a public servant who died with an illness like cancer. Am I justifying what happened, no. But I my heart is heavy that I'm pf has turned their backs on a grieving police family. Prayers.

anon - April 22, 2014 at 05:20 PM

SK

“ I cannot understand what you all must be going through, but as a parent, sister, and friend, I feel for your family. I will pray for peace and understanding.

Stacie Kelly - April 22, 2014 at 12:45 PM

SK

“ I cannot understand what you all must be going through, but as a parent, sister, and friend, I feel for your family. I will pray for peace and understanding.

Stacie Kelly - April 22, 2014 at 12:43 PM

GF

“ You will be dearly missed my friend. The laughs and the fun times and the way you cared for others. I only wish everyone could have known the real you. Not everything you hear is true. Thanks for being my friend.

Grieving Friend - April 22, 2014 at 12:16 PM

GF

“ You will be dearly missed my friend. The laughs and the fun times and the way you cared for others. I only wish everyone could have known the real you. Not everything you hear is true. Thanks for being my friend.

Grieving Friend - April 22, 2014 at 12:15 PM

NS

“ I send my sincere sympathy to Ryan's family and friends. Your family has suffered a great shock and loss.....may you find comfort in memories of good things.

no one special - April 22, 2014 at 12:09 PM

AF

“ My heart goes out to the family and friends of a young man who followed his dreams into law enforcement. Rest in peace, Ryan. I pray God eases the pain felt by friends and family. God Bless All.

A friend - April 22, 2014 at 12:48 AM

MH

“ To the Anders family, My sincere thoughts and prayers are with you all in this time of sorrow. God's love never fails (Romans 8:28).

Melanie Harris - April 21, 2014 at 11:48 PM

BE

“ My deepest sympathies to Ryan's family & friends.

Betty - April 21, 2014 at 01:58 PM

AG

“ My deepest sympathy for the family for the loss of a son and brother.

Ann Garmon - April 21, 2014 at 11:24 AM

AF

“ I knew you as a kind and gentle man.....I am not sure why this has happened, but I pray you rest in peace.

A friend, - April 21, 2014 at 02:46 AM

AF

“ I will remember you as the sweet man with the kind smile and warm heart. You were a friend and someone that I knew I could trust. I will carry with me the fond memories of the man that I once knew and loved. You were my friend Ryan and despite all that has been said over the last few days, I was fortunate enough to know the "real" you. This is truly a devastating loss and I will miss you my friend.... My thoughts and prayers are with all that knew and loved Ryan and for those who are struggling with this horrible tragedy. Rest easy dear friend.

A friend - April 20, 2014 at 06:50 PM