“ Aunt Sally, you taught me so much. My oldest memory of you I was probably only 6 years old. "If you can't say something nice, don't say anything." I think of this often and have always tried to live by this. You are such a strong woman. You had many struggles of your own helping family with illness. You always had a positive attitude and a smile on your face. In recent years every time Shoe Carnival had a friends and family sale you would be the first person I called. I loved our shoe shopping and lunch dates. Love you and will miss you immensely.
