“ Sandy was like a mother to me and I am so proud and honored that my daughters had such a strong woman to call their Nana. She gave me the greatest gift anyone could receive, her youngest son Floyd who is my heart, my soulmate. And for that i thank you Sandy. I'll miss the cookouts we'd have and her telling us ' now you kids better get some plastic up on those windows before it gets too cold' - she was always worrying about someone else. I will ALWAYS love you Sandy and i will ALWAYS miss you. Your warm smile and giving generosity will forever be engraved in my heart.
Till we meet again - i love you, Becky

“ Sandy was a precious lady. She was so sweet to me and a friend when I was a teenager and friends with her boys. I enjoyed seeing her through the years. I am so sorry for the family and friends lost. I know she is perfectly healed now.

“ My children adored her, she always made them feel special. Everywhere I turn , I find something that she gave me; a Picture Frame, Candle sconces, a sweet card, a long black sweater, a pumpkin dish - the best gift she gave me was being my big sister, when I was 5 she carried me for blocks on her shoulders to the Rivoil Theatre to see Gorgo - she taught me how to do the twist to Chubby Checker and introduced me to Vanilla Cokes and curled my hair with rubber curlers. She stepped up to take care of us when are mom was ill, and when our dad died. She always had a sweetness about her and gave us all her love for flowers, especially roses. Sandra had a very green thumb, a huge heart and a gift of making you feel special. She was sweet, loving, funny and sentimental. Life was often unfair to her, but she always smiled and perservered..She lost her mother when she was very young, and herself a young mother lost our dad. Just days of her burying her son she made sure she accompanied us to welcome our son home when he returned from Kuwait... she lost most of her eyesight but would love to look at pictures if you had them to share.. Halloween was always special, we would dress up the kids, take them trick or treating and to Irvington Parades. She found a blessing in her husband Merrill who is amazing, you never left her side when she needed you - you were her rock.. she used up all her luck when she found you. You gave her honor and I hope that everyone touched by her in life - remembers how important we as families and friends are to each other - and follows your lead Merrill - we are so grateful that Sandra was our sister, mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin and friend and so blessed that you are the father, grandfather, Uncle and brother in law.

When I see a rose , I will remember you , I will remember your love of flowers , I will remember my big sister ,who was always there for me, the times we laughed and cried together. I will remember the big sisiter who protected me and took me in when I was ten years old and lost my Daddy . Helping you with the boys when they were little and make curtains and covering furniture to match . The times when you were raising your boy alone but still tried to make sure my kids had what they needed. A part of my heart is gone , I feel lost , Sis ,I know one day we will be together again . I Love you Sis ,It's going to be hard here without you ! 💕
