“ We are heartbroken at this news about Sandy. We have such wonderful memories of knowing her in New Orleans many years ago. I met Sandy when we taught elementary school there together. She was one of the most loving, kind, fun and dedicated teachers and person I've ever known, always full of excitement and energy. Living apart kept us from seeing her as much as we would have loved, but she'll live in our hearts as one of the truly beautiful souls we've been blessed to know. We're comforted that she had a strong faith and knew who her God was and knew her destiny. For all who knew and loved her, it's apparent she embodied Jesus's teachings of love, kindness and grace. She's watching, I've no doubt, wanting everyone to continue loving every moment of life as much as she did. Denny, our love to you and all your beautiful family. We wish God's comfort and peace to surround you all. Sam and Sheilia Moss
