“ Tina was a great person, sweet, kind and loving. She was a wonderful friend to me like one of my sisters. I will miss her very much. She will always be an angel to me. My granddaughters Amber & Alyssa love her so very much and my sons and their family. Love forever and ever, till we meet again.

“ I really do not even know where to begin, I loved Tina with all my heart. As a child she was the coolest Aunt ever with Movie Weekends Junk food and just all around great times. We had a major falling out in Oct of 1998 and I tried several times to talk to Tina and let her know that she was still loved by me. I am sorry for your loss. I am here for you should you ever need anything. I am sorry I will not be able to attend the services I am sure that it will be as beautiful as she was. RIP Tina.
