

Sarah "Phemie" McLaurin

May 24, 1949 - December 14, 2022

Sarah "Phemie" McLaurin, 73, of Indianapolis, passed away December 14, 2022. She was born May 24, 1949, in Monrovia, Liberia to the late Allen H. and Florence E. (Morgan) Williams. Sarah graduated from Eilerslie elementary/high school in Gt. Malvern, Worcestershire England. She received her BA degree from Earlham College, Master's degree in Law from the University of Liberia and Doctorate degree from the University of London, England. Sarah worked with the Morgan Law Firm in Liberia until she opened her own private practice. She left Liberia in 1981 because of a military coup in the country. Phemie was unstoppable! She went on to develop a successful online commercial company after arriving in the US in 1981. She was a devoted mother and wife and a woman of extraordinarily strong faith. She was a member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church. Sarah loved to travel, she was vibrant and vivacious. She enjoyed reading, her rose garden, cooking and most especially spending time with her family.

Visitation will be Friday, December 23, 2022 from 10:00 a.m. until the Mass of Christian Burial at 11:00 a.m. at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, 7243 E. 10th Street, Indianapolis, Father Michael O'Mara will be officiating.

Sarah is survived by her loving husband, Eddie McLaurin, Jr., son, Alec McLaurin; sister, Mettie Thomopulos (Gregs); sister, Dr. Christine Moore (Robert); brother, Allen Williams, Jr., five nieces and three nephews. Along with her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, Edwin Williams and sister-in-law, Sara Williams.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Sarah's honor to The American Cancer Society.

Final care and arrangements have been entrusted to Shirley Brothers
Washington Memorial Chapel.
