

Scott LeCompte

February 21, 1960 - December 13, 2022

Scott LeCompte , age 62, was welcomed home by his loving Lord and Savior Jesus Christ when he passed away unexpectedly on December 13, 2022. Scott was born in Indianapolis, grew up in Cincinnati, Ohio, and returned to Indianapolis to work and raise a family. A graduate of culinary school, Scott was well-known for his skill as a chef, sharing his cooking talent with businesses and community organizations, including families at the Ronald McDonald House and Riley Hospital for Children. He retired from Gordon Food Service several years ago after a successful 25 -year career. Scott is survived by his wife Nancy and his son Chris, both of Indianapolis. He was preceded in death by a son, Andrew Dean LeCompte, with whom he has now been reunited in heaven. As per Scott's wishes, there will not be a visitation or service. Memorial contributions may be made to the Riley Children's Foundation, rileykids.org, in the name of Dean LeCompte.

Tribute Wall

BB

“ Scott you do not have to smile at unfriendly people anymore at work. I will still go get carts without you. It will just not be as fun...I remember the laughs. You had a rough time and now you are happy and can walk the beach and be with your son. Will never forget you....

---

Barb Bowser - April 08, 2023 at 01:35 PM

LS

“ Scott was a true citizen of our city; a person who stood for family and community and used his skills and expertise to serve others.

---

lisa c scott - December 26, 2022 at 10:05 PM