“ *Brother Shannon was a great family man, and is greatly loved by his family at The Bible Church.
He had a passion and a calling to minister to those who were caught up in addictions and used his gift often.
We will miss him here for now but those that love him can go to join him in paradise later by obeying Acts 2:38.
It's the hope that we have in Jesus Christ!*

“ I remember his firm handshake, warm friendly manner, his lovely testimony, his love for God, and sincere worship. He was proud of his business and his church and loved all the people. I'm better for knowing him and so sorry he will leave that seat empty where I looked for him at service time and went to shake his hand. We give him to Jesus because that's where he wanted to be. Sympathies to his family and loved ones. Lynn and I will miss him much.
