“ Dear family,
Chandis and I feel your grief deeply as your mom was one of our favorite people. We hadn't seen her for quite awhile, but always kept in touch with Christmas cards. I know Chandis has so many wonderful memories growing up with his Aunt Sharon (I didn't realize they were only 4 years apart), no wonder they were close. Time, distance and growing families have kept us apart and busy, and now we really regret that we allowed that to happen.
Chandis is in the Peabody Retirement Home in N. Manchester with congestive heart failure and is unable to attend, and I don't drive that far from home anymore. I'm so sorry we are unable to come. Please know that we hold you all in our hearts and prayers, and ask God to give you peace.
So sorry for your loss...hold on to your memories.
Love,
Donna & Chandis Boomershine
