“ Sharon's Family,

Sharon and I formed a personal relation when I first meet her through our careers at Ivy Tech. We spent many professional developement trips and shared a wonderful relationship. When we both retired we kept in touch for a long time. I loved her very much and will miss her. She loved her family dearly and was vwey proud of them. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this sad time She will always have a piece of my heart.

Sharon's family,

I have just learned of Sharon's passing today. I'm sorry we did not know in January. Sharon was a Tech High School friend of my mother's, Nina Douglas Jackson (passed away 12/22/09) and they both volunteered with Salvation Army Woman's Auxiliary. They also shared a birthday month, April. I really admired Sharon.... a fighter, had a positive attitude, loved her family and a great friend. I am sorry for your loss, but am sure there was quite a reunion for her in heaven.

*Hugs,

“ Sharon and I were friends from our days at Tech until her passing. She was a beautiful person inside and out and those of us who were privileged to know her were blessed by her friendship. I know she gave her best in everything she did and she fought a long , hard battle against her illness. My sincere condolences to her family and loved ones, she will be sorely missed but we all know that she now rests peacefully in the loving arms of her Father in heaven. Sincerely, Judy Tracy Easley....love you Sharon.

“ We had the pleasure of meeting this wonderful woman just a couple of years ago. What a fun, whirlwind weekend we all had in Chicago! Sharon was so funny, witty, and smart. The conversations were always clever and interesting. Our deepest condolences to her family- she is now an Angel you know.

“ Sharon and I go back several years. We became friends and sisters as we volunteered our time, service and love to The Salvation Army Women's Auxiliary here in Indianapolis.

She was a lady in every sense of the word! She placed others before herself and was an earthly angel.

She fought a long hard battle but never complained. She loved God, her Family, Friends and Life. She was full of spirit, enthusiasm and optimism.

I will miss her contagious smile, her sometimes dry sense of humor and her strength. I love you Dear Friend!
