

Sheila Dempsey Olohan

February 14, 1910 - April 7, 2007

Sheila Dempsey Olohan, Passed away on April 7, 2007 with her family members present. She was born in Dublin, Ireland in 1910. Sheila and her husband, Danny, and their family moved to Indianapolis in 1955. Sheila was an active lifetime member of St. Philip Neri Church. Recently, she has been an active member in St. Agnes Church in Nashville, IN. She was a loving mother for her six children. Many of her family and friends fondly, respectfully and forever will remember her as ❖Mammy.❖ Sheila lived her life as a devout member of the Catholic faith. She was very active in the Ancient Order of Hibernians (AOH), St. Vincent DePaul volunteer and she served as an Oblate of St. Meinrad. Sheila served as State President of the St. Bridget❖s Ladies Division of the AOH in 1972. Sheila supported numerous Irish community activities such as Indy❖s Irish Festival and the AOH Irish Parade and Breakfast. She was preceded in death by her loving husband, Danny, two brothers, Edward and Gerard, and three sisters, Agnes, Margaret and Clementine Dempsey of Dublin, Ireland and her son, William. Sheila is survived by her daughters, Catherine Zwissler, Noreen (Anthony) Mazza, Sheila (Thomas) Cardis, Maria Olohan (Craig Siebert) and son Donal Olohan. Sheila had 20 grandchildren, 47 great-grandchildren, relatives and many friends in Ireland. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial contributions may be made to St. Philip Neri Catholic Church, 550 N. Rural Street, Indianapolis, IN 46201. Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, April 11 at St. Philip Neri Church. Visitation will be between 6:00 ❖ 8:00 p.m. Tuesday, April 10 at St. Philip Neri Church, and also on Wednesday, April 11 between 9:00 ❖ 10:30 a.m. prior to Mass of the Resurrection. Arrangements entrusted to Shirley Brothers Washington Memorial Chapel.