

Shelly Lynne Riebe Salter

October 21, 1960 - January 25, 2011

50, of Indianapolis, passed away January 25, 2011 at home after a valiant battle with breast cancer. She was born October 21, 1960 to Harry and Linda (nee White) Riebe, and they survive. Shelly was a graduate of Warren Central High School and received an Associate's degree in Computer Science from Purdue University, a Nursing degree from Indiana University-Purdue University, Indianapolis, and her Masters in Nursing from Indiana University all with high honors. She was a nurse for 23 years, 10 of those as a nurse practitioner with Gastroenterology Associates in Indianapolis. Highly respected by her colleagues for her medical expertise and warmly thought of by numerous patients and their families, Shelly was the ultimate caregiver-to her patients, family, friends, and was famous for saying she never met an animal she didn't like. She enjoyed watching movies, traveling, and spending time with family and friends, and she especially enjoyed Elvis Presley music and memorabilia. Visitation will be held Sunday, January 30 from 11:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. at Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel, 9900 Allisonville Rd. with funeral services to begin at 5:00 p.m. Shelly is loved and missed by her parents, her daughter, Stephanie Salter; her loving companion, Bill Springer; his daughters, Jessica (Ben) and Daniela; her sisters, Kim Shiflette (Roger XX) and Jill Kagey (Ken); and her brother, Thomas Riebe (Amy). She will be missed by nieces and nephews Madison, Chandler, and Shelby Shiflette, Samantha and Ben Kagey, and Caroline, Spencer, and Claire Riebe. Her absence will also be felt by her loving pets, Willers and Princess. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorial donations be made to the Susan G. Komen Cure for Cancer Foundation and/or The Humane Society of Indianapolis. Online condolences may be made at www.shirleybrothers.com.
