“ I remember one thanksgiving, my family had attended when we left my youngest blanket, (which she could not live without). I called Shirley to make sure it was there, she said yes. I asked her if she could send they the mail, for at that time she lived a lot further away. She said she would. The very next day she showed up at my house with blanket in hand. I told her she didn't have to do that, her answer, “the baby has to have her blanket!”. I will always remember u Shirley, you will b missed!
