“ Shirley was not only my supervisor at Jenn-Air but also became a friend who I could talk to about anything. She was a genuine friend that you very seldom find in a boss. I remember on lunch break in the cafeteria before she ate she took the salt shaker and tossed some salt over her shoulder. She said it keep bad things away. Maybe that is why we always found something to laugh and talk about. I miss having the opportunity to see her before her passing but will meet her on the other side someday. God be with the family and shelter you in time of grief.

“ Mom & Dad were the best. I have so many great memories with them. Mom's laugh was contagious. When she got the giggles you just had to laugh with her. A lot of memories by the pool with the kids. Sunday dinners and watching Montana and the 49ers. Always love you too Mom!
