

Shirley Joan Young

July 26, 1929 - March 11, 2015

Shirley Joan Young,

Was born in Indianapolis, Indiana on July 26, 1929 to her parents Vance and Hollice Pollard. She graduated from Lawrence Central High School and married her high school sweetheart, Daniel Edward Young, in 1948. Shirley proudly presided as the stately matriarch of her family of four children, seven grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Shirley took great pleasure in travel, entertaining, reading, golf, and nature. She enjoyed wintering in Florida throughout the years, most recently in Fort Myers. In the community, Shirley and Dan were original members of the Mud Creek Players, she worked to establish the Castleton Co-Op Kindergarten and volunteered at Stanfield Circle and Community North Hospital. Shirley's legacy to her family and friends is one built of the values she held dear and perfected during her life: quiet strength, fierce devotion and timeless grace.

Shirley is survived by her children Alan V. Young, Cathy Y. Dyer, William A. Young, and Jennifer Y. Taggart; her sister and brother-in-law Dan and Arlene Siler; her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

A memorial will be held by the family at a later date. Condolences may be sent to 7130 Lantern Road, Indianapolis, Indiana 46256. . Final arrangements and care is entrusted to Shirley Brothers Fishers-Castleton Chapel.

Tribute Wall

“ *Dear Arlene and Family:
Sorry to read of Shirley's passing and understand the last few years have not been good to Shirley. Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Tom Mock*

Tom Mock - March 17, 2015 at 11:51 AM