“ Spence and Barb have been our neighbors for several years. What nice people! We will miss seeing him working around their yard and house. He was always busy doing something. We would stand at the fence that divides our two properties and chit chat about anything and everything. Camry, their dog, never liked my husband. She would bark and bark at him. But Spence frequently got tired of listening to her bark and would send her inside! Loved seeing him ride around the neighborhood on his 3-wheel bicycle. Spence will be missed!
