“ I had the privilege of meeting Steve during a group trip to Shisheena in May of 2021. He became a trusted friend and close companion. He has been a major supporter to my ministry. We had plans to marry that did not work out, yet we still remained good friends. I will miss him greatly. Condolences to Nate, Laurel, and family, to Faith,, Taylor and family, to Doug and Vicky and family. You are in my prayers.

“ I am rev. Larry Neal's youngest sister. I have known bro. Steve Foley since I was a little girl. He was good friends with my brother. My favorite memory of Steve is that Steve and Betty did my wedding reception when I got married. My sympathies to his family. He was a wonderful man. Sister Deborah gona

“ Bro. Foley took me under his wing at CCS when I taught there. He and your mother would have dinner nights and make everyone feel so welcome. My heart is sad at the news but I know he is rejoicing in Heaven with your mother.
