“ I was a good friend of Steve’s. We worked together at western electric from 1969 to 1974. We were Room mates until I married in 1972. We had to move to Florida due to my sons health in 1974. But Steve and I stayed in contact over the years. Eventually we moved back to Indiana in 1991. Again Steve and I reconnected. My wife and I attends his Wedding. My name is Pete SIMION. In the mid 2000’s my health failed and we kind of lost touch except for occasional phone calls. The last time I talked to Steve was in early April of 2009. He told me he was really happy, He had sold his painting business and really liked his new job, he said he had no more stress, and he was very happily married. I was so happy for him. But I had heart failure and was in a coma in the hospital when I came out of the coma and was recovering I tried to contact him with no luck. I told my nurse about Steve and she came in a day later and told me she had sad news for me and showed me his obituary. I tried to contact everyone I could think of to try to find out what happened, but I had no luck. To this day I don’t know what happened to my dear friend. We had so much fun going to roller derby’s and wrestling matches. I know he is in heaven in a better place.
