“ It was said that grandma (Betty) met grandpa (Style) when he died and led him to the pearly gates. Remember though, not the elderly, grandma is as a twenty year old and so is grandpa now. Once again beautiful and handsome, they ran full sprint, hand in hand and grandpa was smiling from ear to ear to be rid of his old body. He said I'm back baby I'm back as he jumped up and down looking down at his strong legs. He said, "I have one question." And grandma said, "Style of course they have baseball in heaven.”

“ Years ago we met the Morris family at the baseball park. My dad (Toby) and him coached us kids. Our families spent a lot of time together & quickly became friends. Style also became my God father. Unfortunately, over time we all lost contact. Luckily, we had the chance to spend some time with Style last year. We picked him up & went to the horse track in Shelbyville. Our horse did not win but it was GREAT reminiscing with a great man who will always be remembered. With sympathy from our family to yours, The Eads family. Jimmy, Tami, Sue & James (Toby)

“ Since day 1 when I worked at McDonald's in New Pal, Stylie always had a smile and candy. We became friends quickly, and he always brought me a box of candy for Valentines day. He also introduced me to the horse races at the casino, teaching me how to read and understand the program, and we attempted to place our big $2 bets on the winning horse. I will miss him and his sweet smile. My condolences to the family.
