“ I knew Sue from Ball State. We went to Howe High in Indianapolis, but at different times. She was a fun loving person. There was a group of us who hung together, and she would always come up with anything and make it humorous. Sadly, our paths never crossed as she lived in a town in Michigan where I worked for 29 years. RIP.

“ I will always remember Sue as always smiling and full of laughter. She truly lived her life to the fullest. I would go visit sue at her Beautiful home in Plymouth and the next thing I knew we were sitting in her backyard with her neighbor Dolly eating cheese, crackers, drinking wine, sharing stories and laughing. She was truly a beautiful woman with a beautiful soul. She will never be forgotten. She is now one of God's Angels. May she rest in peace with the rest of her family.

*Love Your Friend Forever,

I miss my beautiful, smart, gorgeous, sister, 3 years ago. She and my sis always had fun together growing up. Sometime we'd argue but never for long. I miss her day 😞
