“ Your good health and laughter brought me so much joy a few weeks ago that Your sudden departure was least expected dear sir. Deeply saddened by this shocking news. Beloved India and my life experience of India would never have never been the same if it wasn't for the meeting of your good self and your wife on a wonderful train journey in 1992. You were like a father to me and only wish we had more time together as you were looking forward to visiting us here in London. A blessing I wish I was granted but universe works in mysterious ways.! Thank you for all the compassion love and respect. May you have a brilliant journey beyond knowing that you are fondly and respectfully remembered Always! My heartfelt prayers of strength and love for your beloved family who would be suffering such deep dismay. Till we meet again! Your daughter Sujeewa ❤️🌹🙏🙏🙏
