“ Susan, I only regret that we never did a skit together for the talent show. Singing "My God" a la Sister Act would have been a hoot and I doubt there would have been a dry eye. You were so cheerful, encouraging, and honest that knowing you was a very special privilege. Know that even though you're already with Jesus, I still know he loves me. I will forever be thankful for your request to sing that at the hymn sing. I love you, Susan

“ I first met Susan in first grade, when her mother was our Girl Scout leader for Brownies and then two years of regular Girl Scouts. In fifth grade, we both played clarinet together and continued through many years after that...so I have know Susan a long time. We were both members of Eastgate Christian Church and sang together for the choir cantatas at Easter and Christmas for many years. I loved to talk to her and laugh with her, these many past years. May our Lord comfort her family with the peace that passes all understanding. I will make a donation in her honor to Eastgate as her family has requested.
