“ Just a note to all Sue's family and friends. My wife and I were privileged to know Sue and others of the family through the little church we pastored for one year in Buckhannon. Since then we have been on the mission field in Indonesia for 43 years.

So, we missed a lot of Sue's life, but were able to get together a couple times. We know she had some difficult times, as we all do, but we were so happy to be her friends! We pray for all of you who were family or friends or acquaintances. May you have learned some things from her, and may the Lord bless you and meet whatever special needs you have, now and in the future.

A few of our favorite Scripture verses: John 3:16; Proverbs 3:5,6, James 1:5; I John 1:9. We encourage all believers to read, think about, and follow through on Ephesians 5:15-17. There are such great blessings in store for those who truly know the Lord, and especially as we are obedient to Him! :)

“ Sue had a heart of gold, generous, caring & so much fun to be with. So many memories that make me laugh from over 40 years ago. So sad to think that I won't see her next month in WV. My heart breaks for her family & for all those who were fortunate enough to have her in their life. Sue you always made me laugh, now you're making me cry! Love you, Mic

Sue, how could you leave so soon? We had planned another trip to Edinburgh and a bunch of lunches in the near future. More than 30 years of laughs, tears, arguments, jokes, drinks and all that can't be mentioned! I will miss you so!

Sue, You tried so hard to come across "tough" but you were not very successful....I remember the two of us leaving Aunt Amy's little apartment soon after she was diagnosed with multiple myeloma. As you left her behind, you started to cry and said, "They are all going to die on me." You tried to be tough but your tender heart emerged as it often did...sorry we did not have at least one more visit but we will have all of eternity to make up for "lost time"...Heaven will never be the same

Oh boy, you said it, Joyce! I wish this tribute page would allow me to paste a photo of Sue laughing as hard as I've ever seen her laugh. She was so devoted to her extended family. She drove to Virginia to be with us when my mother was put on hospice care Halloween 2014. After staying a week, during which time Mom, her Aunt Betty, improved greatly, she bent down to say good-bye and Mom said something which caused Sue, in her "tough-girl" voice to say, "OK, I'm going to have to leave now because you're making me cry and big girls don't cry!" To which my mother said, "Shit!" You must understand, my mother was the epitome of Southern womanhood and I'd never heard her say that word. I thought Sue was going to fall on the floor, she was laughing so hard. Sue oozed love and we all benefited from it. I know she's chasing Mom around trying to paint her nails "slut-red." Miss you like crazy, cousin.

My dear friend Sue....I can barely conceive that you are gone from this earth. You were one of a kind. I will never forget crazy high school days and even crazier college days. Rest in peace and give Doris a big hug and kiss!
