

Suzanne Jane Rogers

September 20, 1939 - August 23, 2025

Suzanne Jane Rogers, 85, of Indianapolis, passed away August 23, 2025. She was born September 20, 1939 in Kokomo, Indiana to the late Walter and Katherine (Harlow) Moffitt. Suzanne was a woman deeply devoted to both her family and her life's work in nursing. As the beloved matriarch - known simply and lovingly as "Nana" to all- she was the heart of countless family gatherings and celebrations. Her love for family was unwavering and abundantly clear to anyone who knew her. Professionally, Suzanne had a remarkable and distinguished career in nursing. She served in a wide range of innovative roles, from OB-GYN care to senior leadership positions, including Chief Nurse Executive at major healthcare organizations in Indianapolis and Grand Rapids, Michigan. Her dedication to advancing patient care and supporting fellow healthcare professionals left a lasting impact on every institution she touched. Suzanne was deeply loved by all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her "No nonsense" way was well known by each of us and we each are better as a result. Her grace enriched the lives of many, and her legacy of compassion and strength will continue to inspire for generations to come. Suzanne is survived by her devoted partner, Diana Lee Clark; daughters, Julie A. Russo and Lisa Kay Mark (Joseph); grandchildren, Laura Suzanne Chittenden (Alex), Alison Mary Lybarger (Lance), Rachel Katherine Mark and Abigail Lauren Mark; great-grandchildren, Crew Chittenden, Eleanor Chittenden, Lily Chittenden and Olivia Lybarger; and her beloved furry friends,

Izzy, Charlie, Stanley and Desi.

A Private Family gathering will be held at a later date to celebrate Suzanne. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in memory of Suzanne may be made to the IU Simon Cancer Center.
