“ One of my best memories with Tammy was our trip to Florida when our children were young. I'm not sure the kids will remember that traffic or the fog on the way down. I'll never forget pulling over in the Tennessee mountains with so many other travelers and trying to catch a little sleep while the fog lifted. The hotel in Clearwater was terrible (we were afraid to go barefoot even in the room). With all of that, it was still a great trip. Tammy was beautiful and I am lucky to have known her.

My thoughts are with all who have lost her.

Much Love,

Ruth Baehr

“ Condolences to the entire family. I never had the pleasure of meeting Tammy, but over the years I've worked with Don and the brief period I worked with Denise, they always spoke highly of her, and she sounded like a wonderful person.

Sending positivity and strength to all of her friends and family.
