“ Tammy you were my everything. You are a beautiful caring woman with heart of Gold. My life will never be the same with out you. There are some things you wanted me to do. I will do them I've already put the ball in motion on one of those things. You were able to read me like an open book and I'll miss that. You will never be forgotten, I will never stop loving you or your kids. I now you're in no pain now and that gives me a sense of peace, but I still hurt from my loss of you. Say hi to our dads and other family members in heaven for me. See you soon my love.
