“ I'm sorry to hear about Terry. He was my room mate at Williamson and a good friend. He consoled my wife when I was in the hospital for 3 months. I planned to visit him later this year.

“ When I met Terry as a volunteer at Community North, I had no idea how much of an impact Terry's friendship would make on my life. I shall always treasure his kind spirit and advise. May you find comfort in knowing that Terry often spoke of his family and how much he cared for you. I shall miss him. Your friend, Barbara Briggs “ Terry always provided our Seekers Class at Geist Christian Church with his wisdom and helped us focus on Biblical truths. He was a man of integrity and chose to live his faith as an example to us all rather than simply use words. Yes, his last days were tough, but through his pain he has attained eternal life. Oh ... that we all may follow his example. Thanks Terry. Your friend, Ken Nelson.

“ Terry was our brother in Christ. We were in EFM classes together for 2 years. He holds a special place in our hearts. He had a great sense of humor, knowledge of the bible, immense love in his heart, as well as incredible compassion for those around him. He is dearly missed.
