“ I am one of the surviving granddaughters to Thomas Milton, Alexandra. Though in this description it states Thomas was caring and thoughtful he was not such to my mother or I. This is a man whom defiled and sexually assaulted not only my mother but myself as well. He tormented my mother while she was on this earth for such a brief time that I had wished he had died instead of her. Now I've lived with the guilt and trauma this man has bestowed upon me against my will as I was his next target at 4 years old. I became apart of the 97% of women who are sexually abused at 4 years old by him and he used his power to continue to hurt me physically till I was 9 years old but the scars he left on me have sat with me my whole 28 years on this earth. I'm grateful my abuser is gone and I can now live in peace knowing he will never find me or hurt anyone especially another child again. Thomas, I wish you unrest and unease as you meet your god and are delivered punishment for the crimes you have committed on this Earth.
