“ On the road to Indiana right now, traveling with the heaviest heart. I dont think there are strong enough words to describe the hurt we are feeling right now. Thomas was such a kind hearted young man. We were so very blessed to have been able to watch Thomas grow up and to be in his life for almost 23 years. It saddens us so desperately knowing how his life was cut so very short. From a young child Thomas was so sweet and very ambitious. So many amazing memories we made. One being carving pumkins at our house and then eating the pumpkin seeds afterwards. Thomas will be so GREATLY MISSED! We dearly love Thomas and the whole family. You are all not just close friends, you are absolutely our family! We are so very sorry for your loss! Thomas will NEVER be forgotten and we will keep all the wonderful memories we made in our hearts! Love you all!
